A Children’s Salute to Soldiers

Cherry Carl

We hope for all a world of peace,
and wish that every war would cease.
We hope for all sweet liberty,
and wish each man security.

We hope for all a life of friends,
and wish for courage to defend
our right to freedom, one and all,
as we walk with pride and stand up tall.

Our soldiers make the sacrifice
and often pay a painful price
to protect and serve the USA
so we can be here on this day.

We salute those men and women, too,
who serve the red and white and blue.
We honor them, the proud and brave,
as we raise the flag and watch it wave.
Let’s Pretend!
Cherry Carl

Let’s pretend that we can be . . .
most anything, just you and me!

You can be a princess anytime that you like
and I can fly an airplane or ride a motorbike.

With just a little practice and a few good props
I’ll drive you to the city and the next bus stop!

Directions: Duplicate one pretend shape book for each child in the group. Staple several sheets of white bond behind the shape, Staple on the left. Allow children time to draw pictures of things that begin like pretend. Children may dictate picture labels to the teacher/aide or make attempts to write their own. The teacher can write the correctly spelled under the child’s invented spelling. Add the completed book to each child’s collection of familiar reading.
