

As the Travel Tracker, your job will be to keep track of where things are happening in your story and how the setting changes. (In some books, the characters move around a lot.) As you read, note where the characters go as the scenes change. Describe each setting in words or on a map or chart that you can share with your group.

Travel Tracker

Literature Circle Bookmarks/Desktop Nametags