

Through the Year With Frog Pocket Chart Sentences

In January, Frog has a great time on New Year's Day and all through the rest of the month.

In February, Frog is very much in love and he has a great time on Valentine's Day.

In March, Frog wants to get a great big pot of gold on St. Patrick's Day.

In April, Frog has a great time and he wants to be the Easter Frog. He has many eggs in his basket.

In May, Frog does not have a very good time acting like a baby on Mother's Day. His mother has a great time!

In June, Frog has a great time going to work with his dad on Father's Day. Does his dad have a very good time?

In July, Frog has a very good time on his birthday. He gets many great presents.

In August, Frog has a great time on his vacation. He takes many good pictures of his favorite bugs!

In September, Frog has a very good time at school. He gets to be King Frog through whole day! That is great!

In October, Frog has a great time trick-or-treating on Halloween. He makes a very good pirate costume.

In November, Frog has a great time making buggy food for Thanksgiving Day. He's a very good cook.

In December, Frog has a great time and he wants to be Santa Frog. He has many presents for good little frogs.