

Do You Wear a Hat?

Written by Cherry Carl and Illustrated by Ron Leishman
Images©Toonaday.com/Toonclipart.com

Do You Wear a Hat?

Written by Cherry Carl and Illustrated by Ron Leishman
Images©Toonaday.com/Toonclipart.com

January

I wear a hat that's soft and warm
through icy cold and winter storm. 1

January

I wear a hat that's soft and warm
through icy cold and winter storm. 1

February

I wear a flower in my hair
to show my Valentine does care. 2

February

I wear a flower in my hair
to show my Valentine does care. 2

March

My hair is blowing like my kite.
Without a hat, it feels just right! 3

March

My hair is blowing like my kite.
Without a hat, it feels just right! 3

April

I hope my rain hat keeps me dry
when storm clouds father in the sky. 4

April

I hope my rain hat keeps me dry
when storm clouds father in the sky. 4

My headband keeps my hair in place.
It doesn't fall down in my face.

5

My headband keeps my hair in place.
It doesn't fall down in my face.

5

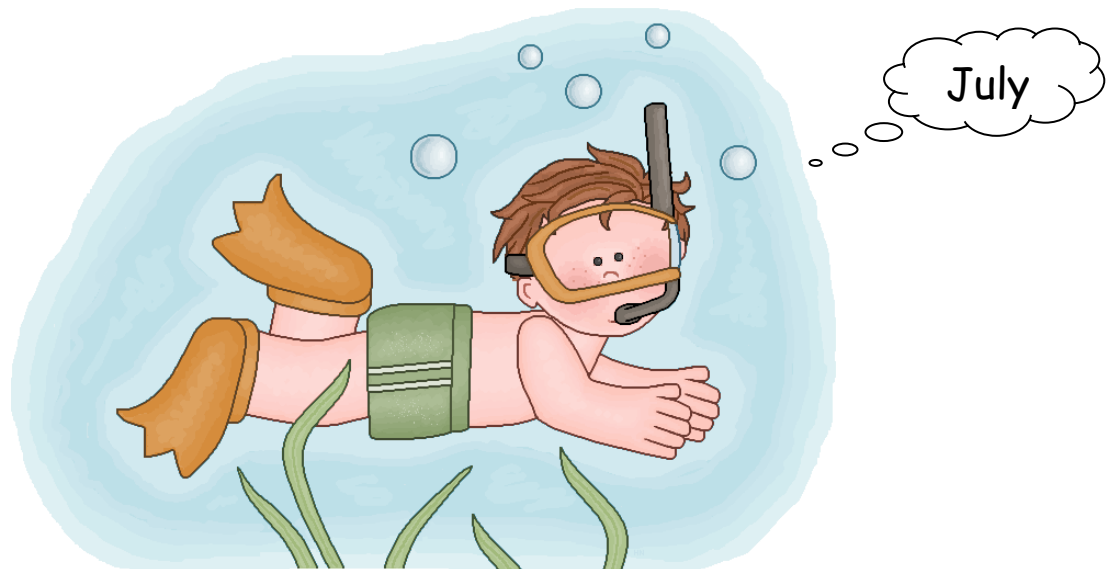

Time to wear a baseball cap,
and hear that ball hit with a snap! 6

Time to wear a baseball cap,
and hear that ball hit with a snap! 6

When I dive my hair is free.
It's safe that way, don't you agree? 7

When I dive my hair is free.
It's safe that way, don't you agree? 7

I wear a hat on summer days
to keep away the sunny rays.

8

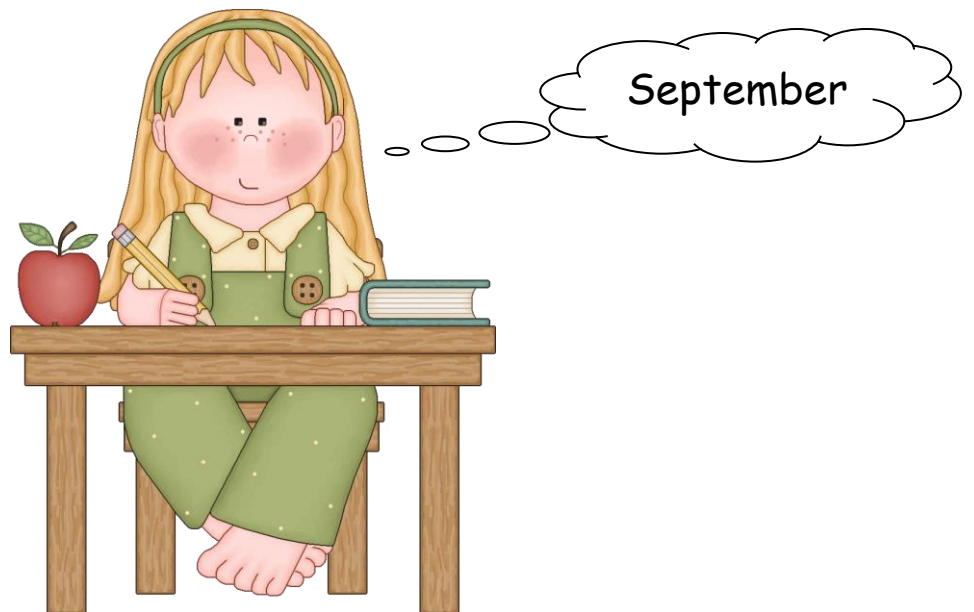

I wear a hat on summer days
to keep away the sunny rays.

8

A headband keeps me nice and neat
when I take my classroom seat. 9

A headband keeps me nice and neat
when I take my classroom seat. 9

October

My pumpkin hat looks pretty neat
when I go to trick-or-treat.

9

October

My pumpkin hat looks pretty neat
when I go to trick-or-treat.

9

November

I wear a helmet to protect
when football players do connect. 9

November

I wear a helmet to protect
when football players do connect. 9

December

I wear a special Christmas hat
to wait for Santa and that is that! 9

December

I wear a special Christmas hat
to wait for Santa and that is that! 9